

The Knights of the Southern Cross Australia Inc. Seventh Triennial Conference

Conference Statement

The Road Ahead – Working Together

The Knights recognised the important contribution that their organisation can make on current social issues.

This was the main thrust of the Seventh Triennial Conference of the Order of the Knights of the Southern Cross held in Perth on 4 and 5 September 2015 with the theme “The Road Ahead – Working Together”.

This dedicated group of Catholic men accepted the challenge of articulating the importance of family values to society.

They called on all Catholics to live their lives as role models by modelling the Christian values they espouse and emphasised the importance of countering the intolerance being shown to those maintaining such values in society.

At the concluding Mass, Colin Walsh (Vic) retired as Supreme Knight and the Acting National Chaplain Monsignor Peter O’Keefe welcomed the incoming National Officers, Supreme Knight Brian Cooper (SA), Deputy Supreme Knight George Sekulla (WA) and National Secretary Michael Gregg(Qld).
